1 Purpose

The primary purpose of this questionnaire is to listen to feedback from students who have taken the course and provide information that will contribute to the continuous improvement of the course in the following semesters, based on the students' attitude towards learning and how well they achieved their goals in terms of the course objectives. Secondly, by sharing the results with the students, we aim to encourage the students who responded to the questionnaires to reflect on their own learning activities, and to use the results as a reference for other students in subsequent semesters. Thirdly, by widely publicizing the results, we aim to enable FD (faculty development) for faculty members and SD (staff development) among those involved in university administration, including faculty & staff, as well as promote understanding of the university's educational activities among students and faculty & staff*.

With these purposes in mind, we aim to achieve quality assurance and improvement in our university's education by disclosing the results of this questionnaire to faculty members and students and utilizing them.

Please note that implementation is at the discretion of the instructor. However, in order to ensure and enhance the quality of education at our university, we kindly request your cooperation in implementing this questionnaire.

* Those in possession of Information System Login IDs (see Q4 on p.23 for details)

2 Period

Center for Teaching & Learning will send detailed information on how to administer the questionnaire to the instructors' e-mail address registered with the University. The information will be sent out twice (on the day the questionnaire starts and before the 14th week of classes).

*For the course with multiple instructors, please follow the instructions of the grader.

*The second email will be sent to all instructors, whether it has been conducted or not.

The information will also be provided in the information system "Notices".

STEP2 Instructors optionally set own questions, download the response request form pp.4-7

After setting up instructors' own questions in the course questionnaire system (undergraduate only), download the response request form to be distributed to students. The system will be available starting at 9:00 a.m. on June 18 (Thu.).

We ask for your cooperation in conducting the questionnaire during the class.

The response rate is very important for grasping the actual situation of the course.

STEP3 Distribution to students

pp.8-9

- Send the response request form by KU-LMS message function.
- OR
- Print out the response request form and distribute it during the class.
(If there are absent students, please send it by KU-LMS message function.)

STEP4 Student questionnaire responses (about 5 min)

During class hours as much as possible, instruct students to scan the QR code (or URL) on the response request form and complete the questionnaire.

STEP5 Check the questionnaire results

pp.10-15

During the implementation period, instructors can check the results from the “Course Questionnaires” section of the Information System. (The results will be aggregated immediately, at any time.)

About 2 weeks after the implementation period, when the university-wide aggregation is finalized, instructors can check cross-tabulations and comparisons of course scores.

- In principle, the aggregate results (in PDF format) for each course will be made available within the university through the syllabus system. (p.21)
- The results of the university-wide survey will be publicly available on the website of Center for Teaching & Learning.

Click on ⑧ the URL, [Refer to the results] at the bottom of the syllabus.

The result(PDF) will be displayed.

Q1 How are the questionnaires related to the three policies and the syllabus?

A: The university's three overarching policies (Diploma Policy, Curriculum Policy, and Admission Policy) are disclosed on the university website. They aim to develop the "Ability to Think and Act" based on the founding motto and the University motto. In addition, each of the 13 Faculties has its own three policies based on the overall university policies, which are also available on the website.

In the syllabus, the relationships (correspondence) between individual courses are clearly indicated based on each faculty's diploma policy. The purpose of the syllabus is to make the academic skills and abilities to be cultivated through the undergraduate program (curriculum) visible by organizing the relationships between the courses taught.

In this context, course questionnaires enable us to confirm, from a bottom-up perspective, whether each course is making an appropriate contribution to the fulfillment of the Diploma Policy by examining the degree to which the course objectives are achieved.

Q2 How can I make use of the instructor's original questions? [Undergraduate school only]

A: Instructors can set their original questions to the students.

Instructors can set up questions in the form of 5-point scale and free-text questions (pp.4-5).

There are many ways to use these questions. For example, the question can be used to verify the effectiveness of the use of teaching assistants (TA) or learning assistants (LA), or to check whether offering related books and materials enhanced students' comprehension.

Center for Teaching & Learning provides support on how to use the questions, so feel free to ask for assistance.

Q3 Will the students' anonymity be protected?

A: Yes.

Students do not need to enter any personal information when responding. In addition, the system is designed such that respondents cannot be identified.

*Only if instructors set the entry of student information, individuals are identified (p.6).

Q4 What is the scope of disclosure of the questionnaire results?

A: The scope of disclosure is as follows,

①Aggregate results for each course [Undergraduate school]

About 3 weeks after the implementation period, in principle, the aggregate results (in PDF format) for each course will be made available within the university to persons with information system login IDs through the syllabus system. (p.21)

If you choose “Private” (only the instructor views), please set it as “Private”. (p.15)

Free text responses are not included in the public release, and are to be viewed only by the instructor. (p.14)

* “ Those with an Information System Login ID” refers to students, faculty members (full-time, part-time, visiting professors, researchers, professors emeritus/emmerita), and staff (full-time and part-time). In addition to the above, officers (the Chairperson of the Board of Trustees, trustees, auditors, councillors, and executive advisors) also have IDs, and the results are widely disclosed for the purpose of SD for those involved in university management.

②University-wide aggregate results [Undergraduate school]

About 3 weeks after the implementation period, the university-wide aggregate results of the undergraduate school questionnaire will be publicly available on the website of Center for Teaching & Learning.

<https://www.kansai-u.ac.jp/ctl/support/questionary/>

③Questionnaire results [Graduate school]

The results of the graduate school questionnaire will be disclosed only to instructors and will not be made public.

Q5 Are the results of the questionnaire used to evaluate instructors' performance?

A: No.

We have established guidelines for the use of the questionnaire results. The guidelines clearly state that “the questionnaire results are not to be used for evaluation of individual instructors”, so that these are not to be used for performance reviews.

Q6 How should I administer the questionnaire in course with multiple instructors?

A: In course with multiple instructors, follow the instructions of the grader.

In course with multiple instructors, all instructors can operate the Course Questionnaire System. However, follow the grader's instructions regarding whether to conduct the questionnaire and how to inform students.

Students' response results can also be viewed by all instructors.

*The setting of the instructor's own questions (p.4-5) and the setting of the student information entry (p.6) can only be operated by the instructor in charge of grading.

Q7 Can students modify their answers?

A: No.

When students clicks "Submit", responses are finalized. Once responses are confirmed, instructors and students cannot modify them.

Therefore, instruct students to be sure to check the "year, semester, day of week and time period", "course name", and "instructor name" before responding, and explain that they cannot modify their responses.

In addition, when a instructor mistakenly distributes a response request form for a different class, the responses cannot be modified or canceled.

Q8 Is it necessary to conduct the questionnaire in class?

A: Please conduct the questionnaire in class.

Conducting the questionnaire in class is desirable in order for students to assess themselves as accurately as possible regarding their own learning outcomes.

It is also possible to avoid non-course student responses by conducting the questionnaire during class.

In addition, there is a concern that some students may forget to respond outside of class time.

For these reasons, it is desirable to conduct the questionnaire in class. But instructors can be flexible in conduct of the questionnaire according to the progress of the class.

Q9 Should students access the response form through KU-Wifi?

A: Students do not necessarily need to access through KU-Wifi.

They can also respond through their mobile carriers (docomo, au, Soft Bank etc.). Note that depending on their mobile plan, they may be charged for the mobile connection. There is no need to stop them to use mobile connections if they choose, but do not instruct them to do so when responding.

Q10 How should I handle students who do not have smartphones?

A: Please instruct students to respond from a device other than a smartphone.

Instruct them to respond from a classroom PC or their own PC during the period. If they need a QR code, please give them a response request form (to take home).
